Summer Programs at the Thaddeus Kosciuszko National Memorial

Beginning on Saturday, June 28th through Sunday, August 24th the Thaddeus Kosciuszko National Memorial will be open to the public from 12:00pm – 5:00pm Wednesday through Sunday (closed on Monday & Tuesday).

Neighbors in The Capital City

(One-hour walking tours begin at Carpenters' Hall Wednesday – Sunday at 10:15am).

Philadelphia served as the nation's capital during the tumultuous decade of the 1790s. Step back in time on this ranger guided walking tour of historic Society Hill and meet some famous residents. Learn about the horrific Yellow Fever epidemics and hear how political leaders helped defined our new nation. Visit the home of famous Polish Patriot Thaddeus Kosciuszko, who helped the United States win the Revolutionary War.

The Thaddeus Kosciuszko National Memorial is located at 3rd & Pine Streets, just a few blocks from Independence Hall. The Memorial is administered by the National Park Service and is normally open Wednesday-Sunday from 10:00am 5:00pm Admission to the Memorial and the walking tour are FREE. Public transportation is available via Route #57, north on 3rd Street and south on 4th Street. For more information, call 215-597-9618 or visit our web-site at: www.nps.gov/thko
